They positively refuse to entertain any proposition and will not raise the price. Asked for reasons, a member of the firm stated that this business of forming an agreement has been tried several times before, but one or two of the dealers were known to violate it at every opportunity. "They would sell lumber at a stated figure," he continued, "and give the purchaser a rebate; again they would give 1,100 feet and only charge for 1,000 feet, thus selections are selected. feet and only charge for 1,000 feet, thus se-curing the benefit of more than their share of the patronage, while the other firms who lived up to the agreement were the sufferers; we shall not go into any trust, but will continue to sell lumber at living figures." Mr. Sanford, of the nrm of San-ford & Evans, was approached by a repor-ter, but the gentleman said nothing had yet been accomplished in coming to an agreement, but while he expected some-thing would be done, had nothing to say at Mr. Sanford, of the firm of San ent for publication.

RACE TRACK ACCIDENTS. S & Injured, Drivers Thrown, Runaways and Smashups. Yesterday was a lively one at the race track, three accidents having occurred. Hugh Kirkendall was the central figure in two of them, which did not result disastrously to him, but that fine trotter, S S, was injured, to what extent is not known yet. For the first time Mr. Kirdendall's string was worked yesterday.
